A decent campaign is one of the issues for the 1908 campaign.

Parker's plurality in Baltimore was 413. We are rejoiced to know that the Monumental City is still virtuous, even by a narrow margin.

Roosevelt says he will not run again. All right! However, before all will be forgiven, he will please give us the name of his pacer in the run which he gave us last Tuesday.

One thing we regret about the landslide is that Roosevelt will consider it a vindication of his administration instead of a fear not to risk a political upheaval while the country is fairly prosperous.

It is announced that a Chicago physician has discovered an antiseptic which applied to the lips will eliminate the danger of kissing. Yes, but the girl's father peril can't be kept off with any antiseptic.

The Republican papers are brimming over with their adoration of Roosevelt. Nevertheless, notwithstanding, their most extravagant adoration is not equal to that which TheAdore Roosevelt has for himself.

The Baltimore Sun chronicles the fact that a box of rubber shoes was stolen in that city a few days ago. We hope no Democrat has stolen them with the intention of gumshoeing around Roosevelt for any favors.

An army officer in the Philippines is being courtmartialed for having two wives. It is not necessary to state that he is also short in his accounts, for when a man gets on the long side in wives money is no object, even if it is somebody else's.

The Boston Transcript declares that woman's most dangerous weapon is her eyes. A woman's eyes may be her most effective weapon, but when a woman gives you "a piece of her tongue," you'll know what is her most dangerous armament.

In Roosevelt's denial of Judge Parker's charges he admits that trusts subscribed to his campaign fund. This shows that after Roosevelt has had a whack at the trusts for three years, they love him so much that they wanted to again take chances with him as a trustbuster.

The Sixth Congressional District of North Carolina will have the unusual record of sending two members to the 59th Congress. The Hon. W. W. Kitchin, Democrat, was elected to represent the Sixth, and the Hon. E. Spencer Blackburn, Republican, though residing in the Sixth, was elected by the Eighth District.

Railroad Hearing at Marion.

Assistant Attorney General Townsend came up to Marion last night from Columbia to argue the case against the Atlantic Coast Line for failure to stop its fast trains at Latta. The argument is on a demurrer entered by the company to the complaint of the attorney general and will be heard before Justice Woods. Several railroad officials from here will attend the hearing.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Florence, S. C., seems to have an epidemic of burglaries.

— A cold wave is said to be on the way and will probably reach here in full force to-day.

— The reunion of Brunswick county veterans will be held at Shallotte on Nov. 25th.

— The revenue cutter "Seminole" has arrived at Baltimore for her annual overhauling.

— The local cotton market remained steady at 9½c. yesterday. New York spot was dull at 10⅛c. yesterday.

— British steamer "Skidby" cleared yesterday for Bremen with cargo of 11,901 bales of cotton consigned by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son.

— Mr. John B. Hand, the prosecutor, having failed to appear against him, Thos. Wagner, Jr., colored, charged with embezzlement, was discharged by Justice Fowler yesterday.

— L'Agile Cotillon Club will give its opening german in the Masonic Temple next Friday night, according to the decision of the Governing Board at last night's meeting. Mr. E. S. Nash will lead the dance.

— In her zeal to prove a case of seduction against a negro man, Maggie Lee, a colored woman, is alleged to have committed perjury in Justice Fowler's court a day or two ago. Yesterday evening she was given trial for swearing falsely but the case was continued for further hearing until to-day.

— Fayetteville Observer: "An immense crowd of people are in the city to-day to see the circus. When the parade, which, by the way, was the best of the kind ever seen here, took place, the streets were simply impassable, wide as they are, and windows and balconies were blocked with sightseers."

Mayor Listens to Trouble.

Plaintive in his appeal that he "simply couldn't help it" and half dead from the ravages of disease, poor Ed Brewer, charged with being drunk and dowa for the 'steenth time, was let off from a sentence of 30 days in jail by the Mayor yesterday upon condition that he leave town at once. Louis Yates, a white boy charged with the larceny of a bicycle, convinced the Mayor that he had no felonious intent in taking the machine and he was let off with the costs. Two white women and a young man, charged with a disturbance in the speak-easy district Thursday night, were let off upon a withdrawal of the charge and the payment of costs by a fourth party to the disorder.

Basket Ball Last Night.

Two good, snappy games of basket ball were played last night at the Y. M. C. A. as the second event in the League series. Capt. J. J. Loughlin's team was victorious over that of Capt. A. C. Boney by a score of 17 to 4, and Capt. Lacy King's took the honors from Capt. Milton Gore and his sturdy players by the score of 8 to 3. Dr. Chas. T. Harper umpired the games. The spectators were present in larger numbers than previously this season. Next Friday evening the games are between Capt. Schulken's and Capt. McGeachy's teams, while in the juvenile class, teams captained by Messrs. King and Dula will try conclusions.

Unusual Abandonment Charge.

George Waddell, colored, was arraigned before Justice Bornemann yesterday on a charge of abandonment and non-support of his wife, who was the prosecuting witness. It developed from the evidence that Waddell left his wife six years ago, when he learned that she had a second husband in South Carolina. Justice Bornemann, in that event, ruled that the husband was the injured party and the wife was required to pay the costs. At the same time she was given some seasonable advice by the "judge" to the effect that "persons in glass houses should not throw rocks."

Deputy Sheriff Shot.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer: "Mr. James Taylor, who is one of Sheriff Marsh's deputies, was accidentally shot this afternoon, and is now in the Highsmith hospital, where the surgeons are engaged in probing for the bullet. It seems that a party of young men were in the rear of the Brandt building, on Hay street, discussing fire-arms, when Deputy Taylor, who had just procured a new 32 calibre pistol, pulled it from his pocket to show to his companions. In doing so, it fell from his hand to the floor and exploded. The ball entered the left leg on the inside, just below the thigh, and ranged upwards and lodged somewhere near the small of the back, though its exact location has not yet been determined on."

THE TRUCK OUTLOOK.

Strawberry Plants Are Fine and Weather Has Been Most Favorable Thus Far.

BIG FALL LETTUCE CROP.

Shipment of the Crisp Leaf Bringing Thousands of Dollars to East Carolina Growers—Fall Irish Potatoes Now on the Market.

From the current number of the Carolina Fruit and Truck Growers' Journal, published in this city, the following items relative to the outlook for strawberries in this section, the lettuce crop and the yield of Fall Irish potatoes are reprinted and will be read with interest throughout the trucking belt:

"During the past ten days the editor of The Journal has had occasion to walk over several strawberry farms, and without doubt we have never seen the vines more vigorous and healthy looking for years. The seasons throughout have been ideal in every particular. First came the showers in July and August, during which time many new plants were set, while during the months of September and October open weather prevailed and the fields were in the main cleared of all grass, weeds and shrubbery. With the increased acreage for 1905 over the present year, coupled with the exceedingly healthy condition of the vines and plants, the indications are quite favorable for a good, healthy business next spring.

"Verily, we are a great people and this is a great country. During the early Spring we ship and supply the world with strawberries, which is followed in turn by cantaloupes, blackberries, huckleberries and other kinds of fruit, Irish potatoes and vegetables, watermelons, etc., until the Fall season, when we begin our lettuce shipments, the latter continuing through the Winter until the opening Spring months. Indeed, this is the territory with which the business world and the commission merchants in all the great consuming centers and points of distribution want to get in closer touch for an all the year round business."

* * * * * * *

"The present Fall crop of lettuce, specimens of which we daily see on the local market, is the finest we have ever known produced in this territory. As for that, we don't believe there is any finer produced anywhere in the world. The growers are exercising the greatest pains in shipping and are forwarding something extraordinary at this time. As the season advances it will naturally be finer and the crop is enormously large. No one ever dreamed a few years ago that the lettuce crop in North Carolina would ever reach the one hundred thousand dollar mark, but the 1904-5 crop will rub the million dollar very closely if it does not exceed those figures. It is now successfully grown not only in Wilmington, but in and around at least thirty to forty shipping points on the various divisions of the Atlantic Coast Line, Wilmington, of course, being the head center and largest shipping point. Commission merchants who are fortunate enough to secure shipments from this territory can truthfully promise their customers something fine and tempting.

* * * * * * *

The Fall crop of Irish potatoes grown hereabouts were freely offered on the local market last Saturday and found ready takers at fancy prices. Digging is now the order of the day, many of which will be stored for planting next Spring. Turnips are in good supply and sweet potatoes are coming in quite freely. Prices average well for all offerings.

Record Breaking Stevedores.

At the wharf of the Clarkton Cross Tie Co., Dr. J. D. Devane, general manager, 18,114 cross ties were loaded on the four-masted schooner "Young Brothers" in 35½ hours ended yesterday by sixteen men under the supervision of Mr. T. J. Brown, of Tomahawk, N. C. The record of loading the cargo is the best ever made at this port and shows that Mr. Brown not only knows how to handle stevedores but knows how to put the maximum number of ties in a vessel.

Upon invitation of Senator F. M. Simmons, Dr. Charles P. Bolles, of Hugh MacRae & Company, left this morning for Goldsboro to join the party of Eastern capitalists which Mr. Howland, lessee of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad, will have as his guests for several days. Among those in the distinguished party will be Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, several New England capitalists, Senator Simmons, Congressmen Small and Thomas and a few other prominent North Carolinians.

"The Sin of Gambling."

In this sermon special reference will be made to the card table in social life. The ordinance of baptism will be administered before the evening service.

MRS. ELIZBETH S. LATIMER.

Most Estimable Woman, Oldest Native Born Resident of Wilmington, Entered Into Rest Yesterday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Savage Latimer, widow of the lamented Z. Latimer and the oldest native born resident of the city, a woman held in the highest esteem and respected by everyone favored by her acquaintance, passed away yesterday morning at her home on South Taird street after a long illness, she having been an invalid for the past eight years. Mr. Henry Latimer, of Auburn, N. Y., a son, arrived a few minutes after his mother had entered into rest. Her only other surviving son, Mr. William Latimer, was with her when she died and other members of the family will arrive today to attend the funeral, which will be conducted to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. One who knew Mrs. Latimer well, a friend who had occasion to know her as she was, has written this sketch of her life, a tribute to her memory:

"Mrs. Elizabeth Savage Latimer was the daughter of the late Timothy Savage, a merchant of this city, engaged in the West India trade, in the early days of the last century. She was born in this city in 1819, and was the oldest of a family of eleven children, several of whom were prominently identified with the history of our city, and all of whom have now passed away.

"When a girl Mrs. Latimer was educated at the school of the Misses Draper, in Hartford, Conn., at that time a famous seminary for young ladies from all parts of the United States. In 1843 she was married to the late Z. Latimer, a prominent merchant of this city, in ante-bellum days.

"She leaves surviving her two sons, Mr. H. G. Latimer, formerly of this city but now of Auburn, N. Y., and Mr. William Latimer, of this city, and also several grandchildren and great grandchildren. In her early days Mrs. Latimer was noted and admired throughout this State, in Charleston, S. C., Richmond, Va., and the Northern cities and Summer resorts for the beauty of her person and the brightness and sweetness of her character and disposition. A descendant of an old and prominent Colonial family of New England and with all the advantages of social position, wealth and extensive travel, Mrs. Latimer was never a mere woman of fashion but, unspoiled by the associations and temptations of society, was, from early youth, a sincere and humble Christian.

"For the past eight years she had been a helpless invalid, bearing her sufferings with meekness and resignation, and always considerate of and grateful to those who ministered unto her. Until unable, longer, to personally do so she was an unostentatious but active helper and friend of those of whom she could learn as being less fortunate and blest in this world than herself, giving her time, her sympathy and her friendship, as well as her means; and her name is held in grateful recollection by many of the poor and afflicted of both races of our community. During her life Mrs. Latimer enjoyed the love and affection of a large circle of friends, and was esteemed and respected by all classes of our city. She was of that type of old times and customs, of which few now remain to us, a lady living in the world and society, but an humble Christian, devoted to the happiness and welfare of others. At the time of her death Mrs. Latimer was the oldest native born resident of Wilmington, and the oldest member of St. James Church. Since the death of her husband in 1881, she has resided with her son, Mr. William Latimer, in her old home on Third street, from which and St. James' Church the funeral will be held Sunday at 3 o'clock.

THIEVES FOLLOWING THE SHOW.

One Arrest in Wilson Thursday—Pickpockets Escape With Money, Etc.

Professional thieves and pickpockets, having no connection with, but evidently following Forepaugh & Sells Brothers' Shows, gave the big crowds at Wilson Thursday "a run for their money." Two farmers, living near Wilson, had their watches lifted by slick fingered gentry on the grounds and Mr. M. T. Johnson, of Fremont, who was returning on the train after the show, was relieved of a pocketbook containing three certificates of deposit of $1,000, $900 and $747, respectively, six promissory notes and $5 in cash. The same night Dr. N. B. Herring's residence in Wilson was entered and $35 and a gold watch stolen. The residences of Mr. Jonas Ostlinger and Mrs. Alex. Green were also entered but nothing of value was stolen, the burglar in each instance having been seen and frightened off.

About 8 o'clock a white man giving his name as Alfred Wolf was captured by Policeman Marshburn in Mr. W. B. Young's store, and when taken to the station house the watch and money stolen at Dr. Herring's, the keys to the residences of Mr. Ostlinger and Mrs. Green and several unidentified articles were found on his person. He said a fellow called "Shin" gave the articles to him and induced him to enter Young's store. Wolf's partner was watching on the outside of the store and got away when the officer went in after Wolf. A Wilson policeman was at Fayetteville yesterday looking for the accomplice. The show management assisted the officers in every way to bring the thieves to justice.

DAN TEACHEY TRIAL.

Duplin Superior Court Will Go Over to Next Week to Complete Hearing.

THE EVIDENCE YESTERDAY.

Defence Building Up Its Alibi in Face of Fearful Odds—State Witnesses Again Put on Stand to Prove Dying Declaration—Other Notes.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

Kenansville, N. C., Nov. 11.—Duplin Superior Court may have to go over into next week, as it is not thought now that the Dan Teachey murder trial will be completed before Tuesday. To-day was a dull, slow one with little interest. The State may not close its evidence finally before to-morrow. Interest in the case is waning. It was remarked upon to-day—the strange fact that the Court House was absolutely empty of spectators save those directly interested.

When court convened at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, Joe Rivenbark, a brother of the deceased, was called to the stand on behalf of the State. He testified similarly to other witnesses relative to the dying declarations of the deceased and then narrated a conversation with the defendant about two weeks before the shooting, in which the defendant inquired if Bob Rivenbark was in the habit of going to Easter's and stated that he would kill the first man he caught there. On cross examination witness was asked if the threat was made in seriousness and he replied in the affirmative. He was then asked if he communicated this to his brother and he said he did not mention it to anybody until after the killing. He was then pressed to know if he would bear a serious threat against his brother and not tell him of it. Witness could not give a positive answer. Jno. F. Rivenbark, another brother; J. D. Teachey, Lizzie Williams, Isaac Powers and Jake Williams were then examined largely about some minor details, corroborating other witnesses and the afternoon was taken up with this. Court then adjourned until Friday morning.

Friday morning was taken up in the examination of Easter Williams, at whose house the homicide was committed. Her testimony was largely like that of Gilbert Johnson and Ann Johnson as to what occurred on the night of shooting; but a great many questions were asked on cross-examination tending to impeach her testimony; and in many details she contradicted the other State's witnesses. The witness fixed the time of the shooting definitely. She stated that about five minutes after Rivenbark got there the "shoofly" blew at Teachey and she looked at the clock and it was 15 minutes after eight and he stayed there 20 or 25 minutes altogether.

The defendant proposes to show by a number of witnesses that when the "shoofly" arrived at Teachey, the defendant was at home, 3½ miles from the place of the shooting.

PRACTICAL JOKERS GOT HIM.

Popular Young Adopted Georgian Met at Train With the Patrol Wagon.

A certain popular young employe of the Atlantic Coast Line who occasionally drops in upon his Wilmington friends and incidentally those of his boyhood days, was the victim of a huge practical joke upon his arrival last night from Waycross, Ga. The aforesaid certain young employe or official—we believe he has risen to the dignity of the latter appellation—had jocosely, during the afternoon, sent a telegram, "collect," to one of his friends here, apprising him of his expected arrival in Wilmington and jocularly adding at his friend's expense for telegraph tolls, this parting shot: "Call out the Wilmington Light Infantry and meet me with the Black Maria."

To be sure, the friend carried out the Georgian's instructions just as far as possible. When the train rolled under the shed, fifteen minutes late, and the adopted "cracker" was about to step off the platform of the car, he met his friend to whom he had telegraphed and about twenty others, all upon mischief bent. With grave demeanor and sympathetic expression, the Wilmingtonian briefly informed the railroader that since he knew him he had "reformed" and been made an officer of the law and that it was his unpleasant duty to serve upon him a warrant for his arrest, which was read, the counts being "peddling without license," "meddling unnecessarily" and "skipping a board bill," to all of which the Waycrossian pleaded guilty and tried to dismiss the subject. He thought the joke was over and started out from under the shed, but imagine his chagrin when he was halted at the driveway, looked up and saw the door of the police patrol wagon gaping for him. He was disposed to resist at first, but in a moment he was overpowered by the "special deputies" and cast, bag and baggage into the cage at the rear of the driver's seat. Then Driver Frank Harper gave the word to "Old Jack," the horse, and the wagon whirled up the street to the prisoner's door of the police station. The joke ended there and the Georgian in the presence of those assembled registered a solemn vow that never in the future would he bulletin his movements under any consideration.

VETERANS IN MONTHLY SESSION.

Pledge Their Co-operation to Daughters of Confederacy in Monument Fund.

The regular monthly meeting of Cape Fear Camp No. 254, U. C. V., was held last night at the W. L. I. armory, Commander Woodward presiding and Adjutant A. L. DeRosset at his post as secretary. The business transacted was largely routine and not of a public nature.

The Adjutant read various official communications received since last meeting and they were ordered on file. Among the number was one from Mrs. Augustus Smythe, of the U. D. C. in Charleston, relative to spurious Crosses of Honor. Another of interest was relative to a publication by Dr. Minor, of Virginia, called "The Real Lincoln," which was warmly endorsed by Col. W. L. DeRosset.

The Commander announced the forthcoming production at the Academy of Music by the W. L. I. Dramatic Club for the benefit of the Daughters of the Confederacy and the camp gave its assurance of every co operation to make of the affair a big success.

"MACBETH" HERE TO-NIGHT.

John Griffith Will be Seen in Shakespeare's Greatest Play—Seat Sale.

"Abandon hope all ye who enter here" is the well-known inscription over the entrance to Dante's Inferno. But of all the pictures of evil, none can compare with the fearful incantations of the witches scene in Shakespeare's play. As the poet says, "My young remembrance cannot parallel a fellow to it." In days gone by, the spirit business on the stage was mangled fearfully, but at the present time, with the aid of chemicals, biographs, electricity and steel, the spirits are produced in wonderful shape and not at all unpleasant to the eye. Several of these modern up-to-date novelties are exhibited by the splendid company in "Macbeth" with John Griffith, at the Academy of Music this evening.

Sale of seats now going on at Plummer's.

FOREPAUGH & SELLS BROTHERS

Pleased Seven Thousand People in Richmond, Va., Monday of This Week.

Tuesday's Richmond Times-Dispatch says of the Forepaugh & Sells Brothers' Shows which will be seen here Tuesday:

The time-worn phrase, "When you have seen one circus, you have seen them all," does not apply to the exhibition of the Forepaugh-Sells combination which was witnessed here yesterday afternoon and evening by thousands of delighted spectators. The Forepaugh-Sells circus contains many new features, and in one number returns to the good old days of the one ring circus. This latter is the leaping act, in which a dozen or more acrobats and as many clowns run down the spring board and then turn two, and sometimes three, somersaults over a herd of elephants.

The Forepaugh-Sells show is a high salaried organization, as may be seen by the list of performers. Diavolo, the Seven Lecessons, the Eddy family of eight, the Aurora Zouaves, Oscar Lowande, the five Carmens, Porthos and the six flying Jordans, are all performers of reputation, and any one of these acts would be a feature with any show. All of them on the same programme make an aggregation worthy of the show of which they form a part, and it must be said, a very small part, since there are two score or more performers, all of whom are clever. One cannot take in this exhibition with one pair of eyes, and since nature has not been more liberal, the spectator can only see a part of the performance. There is something going on continuously in three rings and on an elevated stage, to say nothing of the aerial acts.

The act of the "Prodigious Porthos" is the most sensational on the programme, and is unlike anything ever seen here before in an arena. Porthos rides on a bicycle down an inclined plane, and then flies off into space for a distance of fifty feet, over a herd of elephants. The daring ride is commenced from the topmost point of the tent in order that the necessary momentum may be gained to hurl the rider through space.

The Aurora Zouaves, in their drill, which was executed with the most exact precision, caused the audience to become enthusiastic in the bestowal of applause.

The daring riding of Lownde, the wonderful performance of the flying Jordans, the aerobatic work of the Eddy family, in which the children were especially clever, and the wire walking of the La Carmens all received the applause each merited.

Some very fine and well trained horses were put through their steps to the huge enjoyment of all lovers of horse flesh.

The menagerie contained quite a collection of animals, and among them were some very seldom exhibited in a circus, notably, three dens of Polar bears. The herd of elephants was unusually large.

An excellent band, far better than any other circus band, enlivened the performance, and, indeed may be said to have been a feature of it.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 12.

ROOSEVELT AND THE SOUTH.

Theodore Roosevelt, who has been ad interim President for about three years, has, on his own account, been elected to that dignified position for the full term beginning on the 4th of next March. Already the people of Washington, without regard to politics, have begun to make arrangements to make his inauguration the biggest in the history of the country. This, we are minded, will be entirely to the liking of Mr. Roosevelt. The pomp and splendor will suit him, and big crowds from all over the Republic will hie to Washington to witness this historic event. The South will have its visitors there out of respectful curiosity and in the great throng which will take possession of the national capital there will be none more loyal to their country and none with less animosity to the President-elect of the Republic. However, very few Southerners will be fawning before Mr. Roosevelt, for they have no favors to expect of him and none to ask.

Some of our Southern contemporaries have already expressed apprehension of vindictiveness towards the South by the President who is to come into the Chief Magistry by his own right and not as an acting President as he has been since the lamentable assassination of President McKinley. In our opinion the South will wish him well and have no fear of him. He will do things, as he has done, that will humiliate our people, and his administration will have a bad effect on political and social conditions in the South, but it is not likely that any conditions will arise that will be as bad as when the writer cast his first ballot with federal troops at the polls, hedging them about with fixed bayonets. In any event the South can be relied upon to take care of itself as well under Roosevelt as it did under Grant.

As one who went through the horrors of reconstruction, we know that if Southern men have lost none of their patience, fortitude, determination and bravery, we are satisfied they will catch on their feet every time they are tossed up. We will go right along doing our duty to the republic, taking care of our State, always and bending ourselves to the development of the tremendous resources of our part of America. Politically we may get a black eye, but industrially we will never falter. If Roosevelt has got the brains that his adherents believe he has, he will keep hands off the South, and that is all that can be expected of him, for we are against him and haven't got any apologies to make to him.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch says this:

The people of the South have not approved President Roosevelt's course, and they took occasion to express their sentiments in the election of Tuesday. While Mr. Roosevelt carried the North and West by storm, he failed to carry a single State in the South. The South is solid against him, and the States of the South neither expect nor ask favors from the Republican administration. But they do ask for "a square deal." No matter what was their attitude in the '60's, no matter what is their present attitude toward President Roosevelt and the Republican party, they are sovereign States of this Union and are entitled to the same rights and immunities and considerations to which other States of the Union are entitled. When they came back into the Union after the war was ended, they returned in good faith, and they should have been received in a spirit of kindness and brotherly love. Whether or not they were received in that spirit, let the record speak for itself. The terrors and horrors of reconstruction fairly stated by a truthful historian would form the blackest pages of American history. The South was treated with vindictiveness and cruelty and all reconstruction legislation was conceived, enacted and enforced as measures punative and revengeful. The negro was exploited in politics not for his own sake, but as a means of distressing, harrassing and humiliating the Southern people. The North has shown beyond a peradventure that it has no love for the negro, and no use for him except as a menial. It does not want him in its social life, in its political life or in its business life. Its professed friendship for him was hypocritical. It used him as a means to an end. It used him as though an instrument of torture with which to punish the South.

There are many things about President Roosevelt which we do not admire, but we have always conceded that he is a man of honesty and courage, not to say a man of chivalry and magnanimity. It is greatly to be hoped, therefore, that in his dealings with the South during his next administration he will be governed by none of that spirit which moved the leaders of reconstruction and which manifested itself acts of hostility and spite, but that he will be governed by his sense of justice and fairness, and, as we have already said, that he will give the South "a square deal."

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever and Constipation all yield to this perfect pill. Only 25c, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

THE ELECTION LANDSLIDE.

The colossal defeat of the Democracy last Tuesday will continue for a long time to contain elements of interest. There are 15,000,000 voters in the United States, and the election result shows that 8,500,000 of them voted for President Roosevelt and 6,500,000 for Judge Parker. This gives Roosevelt a popular majority of 2,000,000, the largest in the history of the American Republic.

Roosevelt carried 33 out of the 45 States, leaving 12 States that gave their electoral vote to Parker. Of the 476 votes in the electoral college, Roosevelt gets 343 and Parker 133. The electoral vote necessary to elect is 239, showing that Roosevelt has 104 votes more than was necessary to elect him. He has a majority of 210 electoral votes over the Democratic candidate.

Roosevelt's electoral vote is tremendous but proportionately it has been exceeded in previous landslides. Owing to increase in population, the college now consists of more than twice the number of votes it contained in 1820 when President James Monroe was elected, but Monroe's majority makes Roosevelt's look like 30 cents.

In 1820 James Monroe received 231 electoral votes to one cast for John Quincy Adams, a majority of 230.

In 1840 William Henry Harrison received 234 to 60 for Martin Van Buren, a majority of 174.

In 1852 Franklin Pierce received 254 votes to 42 for Winfield Scott, a majority of 212.

In 1864 Abraham Lincoln received 212 votes to 21 for George B. McClellan, a majority of 191.

In the election of 1872 Grant received 286 votes, while 80 Greeley electors were chosen, whose votes were divided when the college met by reason of Greeley's death, Grant's majority being 206.

Pluralities in Presidential elections since 1824 have been as follows:

1824—Jackson over Adams	50,551
1828—Jackson over Adams	138,134
1832—Jackson over Clay	157,313
1836—Van Buren over Harrison	24,893
1840—Harrison over Van Buren	146,315
1844—Polk over Clay	38,175
1848—Taylor over Cass	139,557
1852—Pierce over Scott	220,896
1856—Buchanan over Fremont	496,905
1860—Lincoln over Douglas	491,195
1864—Lincoln over McClellan	407,342
1868—Grant over Seymour	305,456
1872—Grant over Greely	763,921
1876—Tilden over Hayes	250,935
1880—Garfield over Hancock	7,018
1884—Cleveland over Blaine	62,683
1888—Cleveland over Harrison	98,017
1892—Cleveland over Harrison	380,810
1896—McKinley over Bryan	601,854
1900—McKinley over Bryan	849,790

Some electoral votes in recent years were as follows:

1876—Hayes, 185; Tilden, 184.

1880—Garfield, 214; Hancock, 155.

1884—Cleveland, 219; Blaine, 182.

1888—Harrison, 233; Cleveland, 168.

1892—Cleveland, 277; Harrison, 145; Weaver, 22.

1896—McKinley, 271; Bryan, 176.

1900—McKinley, 292; Bryan, 155.

The following States gave their vote to Judge Parker in last Tuesday's election:

Alabama	11
Arkansas	9
Florida	5
Georgia	13
Kentucky	13
Louisiana	9
Mississippi	10
North Carolina	12
South Carolina	9
Tennessee	12
Texas	18
Virginia	12
Total	133

THE PRICE OF AN ELECTION.

At Albany, New York, on Thursday Congressman James S. Sherman, Republican, of course, filed with the Secretary of State a statement of his election expenses, the amount being $3,310. How much more than that was spent by him the public will never know, but that is enough to show to what extent money influences a free ballot and a fair count.

The statement of a candidate's expenses ought to include the items for which the expenditure was made. Of course, false returns can be made, even under oath, but that is no reason why the State Legislatures and Congress should not pass laws that may go as far as they can to prevent debauchment in elections. All parties ought to have patriotism enough to unite in a determination to have the elections of this country free from taint. This is one of the perils of the American Republic, and its seriousness may be realized too late.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an advertisement of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50 cents, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

—— Roosevelt's latest statement from the White House furnishes strong evidence that he was, as the Courier-Journal intimated, the actual author of the blackguardly attack on Parker put out in Knox's name. COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of two to three points in response to slightly higher Liverpool cables than expected, reports of less favorable weather from the Southwest and smaller interior receipts. There was very little demand, however, and while the market following the call showed a generally steady to firm undertone, further gains were secured very slowly until after midday, when reports that it was snowing in the Southwest with temperatures falling was made the basis for a wave of bull support by route of the professional contingent here and at New Orleans. This buying caught both markets short apparently and for a time there was a flurry of covering during which the market ruled nervous and active. January sold up to 10.01 and March to 10.12, but at this level offerings increased and in the later trading the market eased off about four or five points from the best. The close was steady at a net gain of six to eight points. Sales were estimated at 150,000 bales. The into-sight figures for the week reflecting the smaller interior movement as well as a falling off in the port receipts helped the advance in prices during the afternoon.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Raleigh News and Observer: It is said that Governor Odell won three hundred thousand dollars on the national result. Isn't it a disgusting spectacle to see the governor of a great State resorting to betting?

— Askitt—I see you have written an article on how to succeed. Is it based on your own experience? Rocksey—Oh, no. If I'd done as I advise I would have been noble and honest, but I wouldn't have been rich.—Town Topics.

— Bertha—You don't mean to say you have refused Frederick? Edith—I had to. He told me he had never done anything he was ashamed of. I never could think of marrying a shameless man, you know.—Boston Transcript.

— Salisbury Sun: Though defeated for Congress, Will Newland has no cause to reproach himself. His demeanor during the campaign was that of the high-toned gentleman he has always been known to be and even his most intense political enemy can lay no base word or deed at his door. There are many causes contributing to his defeat but none of his own making unless it is charged that the Watts law weakened his candidacy. Even on this score it must be remembered that Governor-elect Glenn championed this law and swept the State by fifty thousand majority. That there was not hearty co-operation on the part of some from whom Mr. Newland had a right to expect active support is a well-known fact. Then, too, it is equally well known that he had but scant financial support while his opponent was well supplied with the sinews of war.

— Mrs. Wm. B. Shepard, of Hillsboro, who was before her marriage Miss Mildred Cameron, daughter of Mr. Wm. B. Shepard, of Hillsboro, has given four important bequests to charity, education and the church. Her will was probated this week at Hillsboro, and the Orange County Observer says: "The will contains sixteen hundred words, the witnesses being Mr. Charles H. Belvin, president of the Raleigh National Bank, and Mr. Samuel F. Mordecai, Professor of Law at Trinity College. The executors are Mr. Wm. B. Shepard, husband, and Col. Benehan Cameron, brother of Mrs. Shepard. The estimated value of the estate is between $60,000 and $70.000. There are about twenty legatees. The will gives St. Matthew's church, Hillsboro, $5,000; University of North Carolina $5,000; Rex Hospital, Raleigh, $2,500, and the Raleigh Cemetery Association $250. The will provides for several of the family servants, the remainder of the estate being given to relatives and very dear friends.

— A dispatch from Asheville on Thursday says: Sheriff Reed last night arrested John Freeman, a bad negro who is wanted in Henderson county for various offences. Freeman has operated quite freely both in Buncombe and Henderson counties. According to the story told by the officers from Henderson, Freeman recently conceived the idea of laying in a supply of edibles for the Winter. He borrowed a shovel and a pick and at a secluded point, seven miles from Hendersonville, dug three caves. This was several weeks ago. Completing the cave digging, he proceeded to steal everything that came in his way, and a great deal that did not. One day last week a man from Fruitland was held up by Freeman, who showed a big gun in his face and told him to deliver. The man had nothing and was allowed to go. The officers were notified of the affair and a search made for Freeman and his rendezvous, with the result that the caves were located. It is said that the caves contained everything imaginable—pumpkins, potatoes, apples, corn, beans, etc. Freeman was not at "home" on the occasion of the officers visit, but it was subsequently learned that he was in or near Asheville and the officers were requested to keep a look out for him.

— A dispatch from Albemarle, Stanley county, under Thursday's date says: On Sunday night the 30th of October, Mrs. Hugh T. Sanders, of this place, through her brother-in-law, Z. B. Sanders, procured a warrant against Dr. O. D. King, of this place, charging him with a criminal assault upon her while attempting to make a surgical examination. No complaint was made until twenty-seven hours after the assault was alleged to have been committed. The matter was never heard before the justice who issued the warrant, but the defendant through his attorneys applied to Judge Justice for a writ of habeas corpus which was heard before him at Monroe on Saturday, the 5th instant, and the Judge withheld his decision in the matter until to-day, when the attorneys for the defence received a telegram that Dr. King was released. This is a complete vindication. Before the rendering of the judgment of the court the impartiality of the trial judge in the habeas corpus proceedings was so manifest that the prosecutors expressed their willingness cheerfully to abide the judgment of the court. Dr. King is of one of the best families of the town and country and stands high in his profession as well as socially and morally. He has lived in Albemarle for eighteen years and has a host of friends who are rejoicing over the fact that he has been vindicated. He was at no time inside of the prison walls, being kept at the hotel and at his residence by the sheriff with his friends.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck, and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free. †

MODERN SPIRITUALISM.

It Dates Only From the Middle of the Last Century.

Some forms of spiritualism have had followers from remote antiquity. In the Levitical law we find the injunction, "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live," and throughout Old Testament history there are frequent references to this subject, while demons, pythonesses, sibyls, augurs and soothsayers have their places in the secular annals of mankind.

In its modern form spiritualism dates only from the forty-eighth year of the last century, when, at the house of a farmer of Hydesville, in the state of New York, the spirit of a peddler who had been murdered there some five years previously was said to produce certain unaccountable rappings and disturbances in the room occupied by little daughters of the house.

An investigation by the neighborhood followed, and, to quote the words used by Farrar in his pamphlet on the subject, "It soon became evident that an organized attempt was being made by the denizens of the spirit world to establish a method of communication with mankind."

From that time spiritualism spread rapidly, and by the year 1871 the number of its supporters was variously reckoned at from 8,000,000 to 11,000,000.

Proof Positive.

Tagleigh—Old Lawless cannot be such a very bad attorney. He succeeded in securing an acquittal in that last murder case. Warleigh—Well, when he told the jury that the prisoner had selected him in preference to all other counsel they brought in a verdict of "temporary insanity."

The Venturesome Win.

"There are some men," said the pessimist, "whom good fortune seems to follow always."

"I think you are wrong," replied the optimist. "If you were to examine into the matter you'd find it invariably meets them."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Just Like a Man.

The Groom—Our anniversary! What anniversary, dearest? The Bride (sadly)—Have you forgotten so soon? We've been married a week today."

Recollection is the only paradise from which we cannot be turned out. —Richter.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff Is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 12.

COLLISION OFF BARNEGAT.

Schooner Run Down and Sunk by U. S. Supply Ship Culgoa--Four Lives Lost. Four of the Crew Rescued.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 —Captain Robert Walton, his wife, and two seamen lost their lives Wednesday night off Barnegat light, when the United States supply ship Culgoa cut down the Norfolk lumber schooner Wilson and Hunting. Four members of the crew, the mate, whose name is Peterson, the steward and two seamen, were rescued by the Culgoa and they were brought here to-day.

The accident occurred, according to the survivors, at 7 o'clock in the evening. The schooner was ten miles west of Barnegat tacking off shore when she was struck by the Culgoa, which was making for New York. The steel bow of the supply ship struck the schooner amidships and cut half-way through, throwing the small vessel on her beam ends. The Culgoa kept on at full speed with the intention of keeping the schooner fastened to its bow until the crew could be rescued. The gaping hole in the side of the sailing vessel was so large, however, that it slid off to one side. A boat from the Culgoa rescued the four men. No others were seen, and it is thought Captain Walton went below after his wife when the collision occurred and that they were both drowned, with two seamen who were in their bunks. The Culgoa stayed by the capsized schooner all night and at daylight Thursday morning lowered two more boats, but the sailors were unable to discover signs of life on the wreck. The schooner is now believed to be drifting about near Barnegat. The supply ship anchored off Tompkinsville to-night and landed the survivors. Her bows are badly damaged.

ROOSEVELT'S CABINET.

Mr. John Hay Will Continue as Secretary of State.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 111.—President Roosevelt made the announcement to-day that Mr. John Hay would continue as secretary of state during the four years beginning March 4th next.

"You may state positively," were his words, "that Mr. Hay will continue as secretary of state up to the 4th of March, 1909."

The President was asked regarding the other possible cabinet changes, but indicated that there was nothing to be said at present. Mr. Hay's succession to the State Department portfolio fixes the most important place in the new cabinet and is the first and only step so far taken in that direction.

TOBACCO PLANTERS.

Organization Formed to Endeavor to Control Price of Loose Tobacco

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Nov. 11.—With delegates in attendance from many of the Southern belts, the planters to-day organized what is to be known as the American Tobacco Growers' Association. The organization is for the purpose of endeavoring to control the price of loose tobacco. The officers are: President, E. L. Davenport, Oisney, Ky.; Secretary, C. H. Taylor, Bedford county, Va. Executive Committee—H. B. Sherman, Indianapolis, Ind.; W. D. Price, Charlotte county, Va.; L. N. Roberison, Owensboro, Ky.

The next annual meeting will be held at Owensboro, Ky. There were forty delegates present.

HEAVY ARTILLERY FIRE CONTINUES.

But No Advances Made by the Japanese or Russian Armies Along Shakhe River.

INFANTRY CLASH AT NIGHT.

Neither Side Gained Advantage—Japanese Not Ready to Attack—Russian Losses in the Ten Days Battle. No News from Port Arthur.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MUKDEN, Nov. 10, via Tsin, Nov.11. An artillery fire from both sides is continued at intervals. It is heavier on the Russian right wing, where all day on November 9th and also during the night, the Russians shelled the Japanese positions with their heavy guns. Neither side on that date gained any advantage.

As a result of the heavy bombardment by the Russians the Japanese have withdrawn some of their batteries from the advanced positions. It is believed that not being ready to attack they are falling back to the hill.

The Russians gained a great advantage when, towards the end of the battle on the Shakhe river, they recaptured Lone Tree hill, which has since been re-named Poutiloff hill, in honor of the colonel who led the last success ful attack. This hill commands a large part of the plain over which the Japanese must advance.

The operations are about the same each day. There is artillery firing most of the time and frequent clashes of infantry at night. As has been the case in most wars, but entirely unexpected in this one, the soldiers of the opposing outposts in close proximity engage in the exchange of cigarettes and other luxuries.

No News from Port Arthur.

CHE FOO, Nov. 11.—No news whatever regarding the operations at Port Arthur reached Che Foo to-day.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 11.—A dispatch reached General Sakahoriff announcing that last night passed quietly. He also reports that there were a couple of unimportant outpost affairs the previous day.

Russian Casualties.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 11.—A corrected casualty list of the ten days battle of the Shakhe river, issued by the war office, places the total of killed or wounded at 33,350, of whom 900 were officers. The first returns, it is explained, contained duplications and some of the men were so slightly wounded that they returned to the ranks in a few days.

Heavy Artillery Firing.

MUKDEN, Nov. 11.—There was a heavy exchange of artillery fire yesterday at the Russian right center. The Russian batteries began shelling the Japanese trenches and the Japanese batteries responded.

During last night Russian volunteers dislodged a detachment of Japanese infantry from trenches in front of Lone Tree hill.

The Japanese continue to show activity on the left flank, without, however, engaging in any serious movement.

Comfortable dug-outs are being built along the Russian lines and the soldiers seem to think that they will winter where they are. The idea that Field Marshal Oyama contemplates an attempt to take Mukden is not generally entertained. Both sides seem content for the present with a suspension of hostilities. Warm clothing is being distributed among the troops.

Unconfirmed Rumor.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—No confirmation has reached London of the rumors current on November 10th of the capitulation of Port Arthur, that General Stoessel was asking for an armistice, etc.

According to the Daily Telegraph's Chee Foo correspondent, Japan has consented to open the port of Antung to steamers chartered by silk merchants when the latter obtain special permission. This action is due to China's protest that exclusion of neutral shipping would ruin the silk trade.

WEST VIRGINIA SENSATION.

Armed Posses in Pursuit of a Murderer. Threats of Lynching—His Friends Organizing, Swearing Vengeance.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 11.—At a late hour to-night all efforts to capture Edward W. Jackson, who shot and killed Sheriff Daniels and John Roolf, a prominent citizen, in Montgomery yesterday, as the result of the killing of his brother, Constable Walter Jackson, by Policeman Elliott on Wednesday, had proved futile. Forces have been searching for Jackson all day and are still scouring the surrounding country for him to-night. Two pairs of bloodhounds were placed on his trail to-day, but with no success. The excitement following the double shooting has somewhat subsided, but the friends of Sheriff Daniels still threaten to lynch Jackson if he is captured.

Ed. Jackson was chased into a cave last night, when it was decided to wait for daylight for his capture. Although the place was surrounded during the night, Jackson escaped. The posse had been increased to 350. Meantime, the friends of Jackson are reported to be openly organizing around Montgomery and swearing vengeance if Jackson is lynched or killed without being given a trial.

Governor White was asked to send troops. He replied he would hold troops in readiness, but advised forming a large posse. Deputy sheriffs are being sworn in from adjacent counties and are hastening to the posse to prevent lynching or any violence if Jackson is taken alive, and also to prevent any attempt on Jackson's friends to rescue the prisoner. A reward of $10,000 has been offered for Jackson dead or alive.

DEKALB COTTON MILLS.

Re-sale of Property on December 21st Ordered by U. S. Court.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov.11.—Judge Brawley, in the United States court to-day signed an order directing the re-sale of the DeKalb cotton mills at Camden. Standing Master Gilliland is authorized to sell the property on December 21st at not less than $155,000.

The mills were first sold some months ago under an order of the court for $155,000. It was afterwards alleged that the bidding had been "chilled" by purchasers and the sale was set aside and the property offered again October 12th, with an upset price of $175,-000. There were no bidders and the property now goes to the block for the third time.

THE ELECTION IN MARYLAND.

Returns Indicate that Seven Democratic and One Republican Elector Were Chosen--Official Vote Required

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BALTIMORE, MD., NOV. 11.—That an official count of the ballots cast for the presidential electors at last Tuesday's election in Maryland will be required before definite knowledge of the result can be assured was demonstrated to-night by the semi-official count in Baltimore city and in 20 of the 23 counties of the State. The returns received thus far indicate that seven Democratic and one Republican elector were chosen. The congressional situation remains unchanged—three Democratic and three Republican congressmen having been elected.

The State board of canvassers, which consists of the State comptroller, the secretary of state, the clerk of the court of appeals and the attorney general, will make the official announcement of the vote. This board must meet and complete its labors within thirty days after the day of election.

It is explained by the election supervisors and the political leaders that the mismarking of ballots caused the discrepancy between the vote for the national and congressional candidates. In this connection charges of fraud are made by the leaders of either party and it will be necessary to wait the official count to dicide upon the ultimate result.

Of the presidential electors it is safe to say that Charles J. Bonaparte, Republican, of Baltimore city, was elected, and that the remaining seven members of the electoral college were chosen by an average of about 400 by the Democrats. The vote for the candidates on the Socialist, Prohibition and Union Labor tickets has not yet been canvassed.

Both the Democratic and Republican leaders claim that frauds and irregularities occurred in the counties and hundreds of ballots have been held up by the supervisor in Baltimore and in at least three of the counties of the State. It will, therefore, require the decision of the State board of canvassers to determine the actual result.

It is expected that the semi-official returns of the State will be available to-morrow.

TOM TAGGART TALKS.

Chairman of Democratic National Committee Has No Intention Resigning.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic national committee, has no intention of resigning his post, according to a statement made to-day.

"I have returned to New York the same as I left it, a Democrat," he said. "No man, no policy nor any platform would have stopped the cyclone for Roosevelt. There is no accounting for cyclones. Neither party had expected it, nor did either have a line on it.

"The utmost harmony exists among the members of the committee and there is no need for reorganization. There are no heart-burnings, no recriminations, excepting the general regret for the defeat of our candidate. I have no intention of resigning. National headquarters will be at Indianapolis and at French Lick Springs. Indianapolis is my home, you know, and I have business interests in the springs.

"It's too early yet to talk politics and policies and presidential possibilities of four years hence."

A BOSTON FAILURE.

Federal Stock and Grain Company Suspended—Liabilities Not Large.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BOSTON, MASS., November 11.—The pronounced rise the stock market was responsible for the suspension to-day of the Federal Stock and Grain Company, of this city, one of the largest concerns of the kind in the country. The company had four offices in Boston and fifty or more in other cities. Treasurer D. E. Murray states that the concern has lost $1,000,000 in the last six months, and adds that the claims against it do not exceed $150,000.

While most of the branch offices are in New England, the concern had agencies in Montreal, Denver and several other cities.

All branches were closed shortly after the announcement of the suspension and in several places attachments have been filed against funds standing in the banks to the credit of the concern. The company is said to have cleared $3,000,000 last year.

THE WORLD'S COTTON.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 11.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton, issued to-day, shows the total visible to be 3,421,528 bales, against 3,155,837 last week and 2,895,912 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 2,907,528, against 2,663,837 last week and 2,416,912 last and of all other kinds including year, Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 514,000, against 492,000 last week and 479,000 last year. Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 1,643,000 bales, against 1,463,-000 last year; in Egypt 130,000, against 116,000 last year; in India 180,000, against 141,000 last year; and in the United States 1,469,000, against 1,176,-000 last year.

WRECK ON THE SOUTHERN.

Fast Train Ditched Near Cochran, Ga. Thirteen Persons Injured.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MACON, GA., Nov. 11.—The Southern railway's fast train No. 14, for Brunswick and Jacksonville, was ditched at an early hour this morning, three miles below Cochran, Ga. Several coaches were overturned and thirteen persons were injured in the wreck, though none seriously. The accident was caused by a misplaced rail, the spikes of which were either broken or had been removed. To the left of the track was a forty foot embankment, and had the train gone down on that side it is probable that great loss of life would have occurred.

COTTON DAMAGED.

Heavy Fall of Sleet With Cold Weather in Arkansas.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

HOPE, ARK., Nov.11.—Early to-day a drizzling rain set in and the falling temperature soon changed it to sleet and this section is now covered with a heavy coat of ice. The cotton in the fields is being damaged badly and this weather will doubtless have its effect upon the crop. The bolls which have not opened were killed by the ice to-day.

HORRIBLE BUTCHERY AT AUBURN, CAL.

A Family of Four Persons Murdered and Their Home Fired to Conceal the Crime.

MAN, WIFE AND CHILDREN.

All Killed by Pistol Shots—Their Bodies Partially Burned—Robbery Not the Motive—No Clue to the Perpetrator of the Crime.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

AUBURN, CAL., Nov. 11.—It is now known that Julius Weber, his wife, their 19 year old daughter Bertha and their son Paul, aged 14 years, were murdered last night by an unknown assassin, who set fire to the house in an effort to cover his crime. Before the fire had made any great headway the bodies of the murdered woman and her two children were rescued from the burning house.

An examination of the bodies showed that Mrs. Weber and the children had been murdered before the fire had been started. Mrs. Weber and her daughter had been killed by pistol wounds. On the boy's head were several deep cuts. He had also been shot.

All efforts to reach Julius Weber, the father, who was not thought to be in the burning house, were abandoned until to day when a search was made in the burning timbers and the body was found in the bath room of the dwelling. He, too, had been shot down before being left to be consumed by the flames. This makes the death list as follows: Julius Weber, aged 48; Mrs. Julius Weber, aged 41; Bertha Weber, aged 19, their daughter; Paul Weber, aged 14, their son.

The body of Mr. Weber was so badly burned that it has been impossible to ascertain how often he was shot. It has been ascertained beyond a doubt that the women were killed in one room and their clothing set on fire, and that they were then dragged into the apartment where their bodies were discovered.

One very peculiar circumstance is that while the bodies of the mother and daughter were burned to some extent, the apartment in which they were lying was not on fire when the firemen broke in, which showed that they had been killed in some other portion of the house, partially burned and then dragged into the room where they were found.

The robbery theory is about exploded. Adolph Weber, the son, aged 20, who is the only member of the family alive, talks but little, but to the coroner and sheriff he said he did not think the motive was either robbery or revenge. When asked if he had a theory, he said he had, but would not give it. He did say, reluctantly, that his father had a violent temper. The boy said he left the house about 6:30, came down town and bought a pair of trousers. When he went to the fire he dropped his trousers, which were in a bundle, in the burning building. Young Weber has a good reputation. Two 32 calibre revolvers were found, but the bullets extracted from the bodies were of 32-calibre.

THE PEACE SUGGESTIONS.

Difficulties in the Way—Japan Will be Ready to Treat for Peace After the Fall of Port Arthur.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The dispatch of the Associated Press from Washington confirming the statement made in these dispatches that Japan had indicated her willingness to entertain peace suggestions from President Roosevelt or King Edward, created much interest here. Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, said to day:

"After the fall of Port Arthur, Japan would, I believe, be ready to treat for peace on no higher essential basis than that Russia should evacuate Manchuria, Japan also agreeing to a similar evacuation. The two great difficulties in the way of any suggestion of peace are, first, the apparent opposition of Emperor Nicholas' present advisors to a settlement of any kind; second, the preservation of Russian prestige. When a nation's prestige, if not gone is severely impaired, it is a difficult matter even with the best of intentions to preserve it."

The Associated Press learns that Queen Alexandria has been in constant communication with the dowager empress of Russia and Emperor Nicholas himself during the last few days. This is interpreted here as a hopeful sign and as possibly likely to lead, though not in the immediate future, to the establishment of some modus vivendi whereby steps looking to arbitration might be initiated without offence to Russia.

The reiteration of the American State Department's determination not to intervene except on requests from both of the belligerents tallies with the official attitude of the British government, but it is thought that before long some method may privately be devised whereby this diplomatic barrier to action will be overcome.

EXPLOSION AND FIRE.

In a Paint Factory Near Paris—Two Lives Lost—Many Injured.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—A fire in which two men are known to have lost their lives and which was attended by most dramatic incidents occurred this afternoon in the Ripolin enamel paints factory at Issy, near Paris. About 4 o'clock a terrible explosion wrecked the building, in which 25 men and an equal number of women were employed. Flames broke out instantly and in a few minutes the factory was like a furnace. Barred windows rendered escape from the building difficult. Many women rushed out with their clothes burning and jumped into the river Seine in order to extinguish the flames.

About ten men and the same number of women were severely burned, several of them critically; and besides those known to have died as the result of burns, it is feared that some persons perished in the building.

BOXER OUTBREAK EXPECTED.

Sensational Reports of Another Uprising in China Against All Foreigners Come from Pekin.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BELOIT, WIS., Nov. 11.—Sensational reports of a threatened Boxer uprising come from Pekin, China, in a letter from Charles F. Gammon, of the American Bible Society, to his father, E. M. GAMMON, of Beloit. Mr. Gammon says that a second Boxer outbreak is inevitable and states that United States Minister Conger is alive to the danger and has notified the Chinese officials that unless the movement is suppressed at once he will request United States troops to be sent to Pekin.

Mr. Gammon's letter reads in part as follows:

"I find the situation, in some parts of the North very unsatisfactory, particularly in Shan Tung and Honan. Dates have been set for the slaughter of all foreigners and the general symptoms resemble those of 1900.

"Several secret societies including the Boxers, have united in one great society, the purpose of which we do not understand. The officials are helpless because many of their underlings are members. In fact, the officials are forced to obtain information from missionaries. The cause of the trouble I do not know wholly, but heavy taxation is one of them. This is being laid at the door of the foreigners."

JURY'S VERDICT.

$35,000 Awarded a Woman in New York for Loss of Her Husband.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—What is said to have been the largest verdict ever awarded under similar conditions was returned in the Supreme Court to-day, when a jury awarded Mrs. Mary O. GaNun $35,000 for the loss of her husband, who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Grand Central tunnel on January 8, 1902. Mr. GaNun was on his way from his home in Greenwich to his place of business in this city when the train on which he was riding crashed into another. He was hurled from his seat, his head striking an iron projection on the seat ahead. He did not appear badly injured at first, and was able to continue his business for many months but according to testimony given in the case he experienced a remarkable change in disposition. From a jovial and congenial men he became morose, ill tempered and depressed in spirits. About a year and a half after the accident GaNun became seriously ill and died four days later. Physicians who performed an autopsy testified that death was due to a rupture of the heart which was indirectly due to the shock and injuries received in the collision. Mrs. GaNun sued for $70,000 damages and the jury returned a verdict for half that amount.

Red ink is easily made by amateurs who follow this recipe: Get a one ounce bottle and see that it is perfectly clean and dry. Place in it one teaspoonful of aqua ammonia, gum arabic the size of two peas, and add six grains of carmine. Fill up the bottle with clear soft water, and after standing a little while it will be fit for use.
